New Opportunities

Another new year begins. At the library we have settled into our “new normal” and are feeling secure in the services we are providing to our community and looking forward to trying new things.

There has been a lot of uncertainty in the recent past and we have all just wanted to go back to what we know, but once we realized that we couldn't just wait it out, we started looking for new ways to do the things we do as well as whole new things to try. Some failed, some made do, and some succeeded well beyond expectations. It just goes to show that sometimes we need to be pushed out of our comfort zone to see what we are really capable of.

I am by no means saying that the COVID-19 experience has been a good thing. However, it has been encouraging to see the resilience and innovation that has come out of it. As we move forward, let's remember to take these characteristics with us. The Peace River Municipal Library and libraries in general, certainly intend to do so with the help of the people we serve.

IN THE ART GALLERY

TREX Exhibit: The Male Gaze—
December 16th to January 19th

“In feminist theory the phrase ‘the male gaze’ refers to the act of depicting women in the visual arts and literature from a masculine, heterosexual perspective that presents women as objects for the pleasure of the male viewer. The Alberta Foundation for the Arts travelling exhibition The Male Gaze disrupts this performance by presenting the work of three male artists from Edmonton who investigate male subjects and concerns as themes in their work; exploring concepts of gender and what it means or could mean to be ‘a man’ in the 21st century. Examining stereotypes and changing social landscapes these artists invite viewers to consider and question the character and roles of men in society through both the lens of history and in the present day.”
